Formal Matters

This Office action replaces the one mailed on April 19, 2004 because the examiner was not aware at the time of a Preliminary Amendment canceling claims 1-42 and adding claims 43-63.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Scott Cox on May 4, 2004.

The application has been amended as follows:

in claim 1, the last word "section" has been changed to - - element - -.

in claim 63, in lines 5 and 9, "section" has been changed to - - element - -.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

none of the prior art of record discloses or suggests an ablation catheter or its method of use comprising in part the combination of the following:

an elongate flexible member, and a conductive ablating element secured to the elongate flexible member, wherein the resistance of the ablating element over its outer surface is predetermined such that during an ablating procedure, the temperature of the ablating element is generally consistent over the length of the outer surface of the ablating element.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Roy D. Gibson whose telephone number is 703-308-3520. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F, 7:30 am-4:00 pm.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Linda Dvorak can be reached on 703-308-0994. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 703-872-9306.
